

The Upper Blackstone Water Pollution Abatement District (Upper Blackstone) is conducting side-by-side pilot testing with the objective of determining the optimal combination of chemical type and add-on phosphorus removal technology to meet all of its NPDES effluent requirements (phosphorus and metals).

